

SEC. 3. Said bonds shall be sold for not less than par by said board of aldermen, and the proceeds arising therefrom shall be paid to the treasurer of the city of Concord; and the proceeds of sale shall be at the disposal and under the control of the trustees of the Concord Public Library, and shall be used for the purposes heretofore enumerated.

SEC. 4. That for the purpose of providing for the payment of the semiannual interest on said bonds, and providing a fund for the payment and redemption of the principal of said bonds at maturity, it shall be the duty of the board of aldermen of the city of Concord, at the time fixed by law for the levy of other city taxes, to levy and cause to be collected, as other city taxes are levied and collected, each year so long as any of said bonds or any interest thereon remains unpaid, a special tax upon all real and personal property within the city of Concord which is subject to taxation for ordinary municipal purposes, sufficient to pay the semiannual interest on said bonds and provide a sufficient fund for the payment and redemption of the principal of said bonds at maturity, which taxes, when collected, shall be at all times kept separate from all other taxes, and shall be used only for the purposes above set forth.

SEC. 5. That if a majority of the qualified voters shall vote at said election in favor of the bonds and special tax, the board of aldermen of the city of Concord may levy annually, and cause to be collected, a special tax not exceeding five cents on the hundred dollars' valuation on all real and personal property within the city of Concord which is subject to taxation for ordinary municipal purposes, for the purpose of paying the running expenses, of purchasing new books and other things incident to the maintenance of said library.

SEC. 6. That the board of aldermen of the city of Concord may, if they deem it advisable, order an election to be held in said city at such time as may be fixed in said order to submit the provisions of this act to the qualified voters residing in said city, and may order a new registration of the qualified voters of said city, if they deem it advisable, and, at least thirty days preceding said election, shall give public notice thereof by publication in a newspaper published in said city. That said election shall be held and conducted as near as may be in the same manner and under the same requirements of law as are now in force, or may hereafter be provided by law, for holding elections for municipal officers of said city.

SEC. 7. That at said election all qualified voters in favor of the bond issue and the levy of the special taxes as provided for herein shall vote a ballot on which is written or printed the words "For Bonds and Special Tax," and all qualified voters
